

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Alberto Laya
DOCKET NO.: 16-30813.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 24-15-100-045-1008

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Alberto Laya, the appellant(s), by attorney Michael R. Davies, of the Law Offices of Michael R. Davies, Ltd. in Oak Lawn; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $904
IMPR.: $8,577
TOTAL: $9,481

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit within a 35-year old, multi-story, 26-unit condominium building. The property is located in Worth Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of the overvaluation argument, the appellant submitted information on the sale of four units within several condominium buildings. These units sold from October 2015 to January 2016 for prices ranging from $47,000 to $80,000.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $9,481. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $94,810 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a grid listing all the units within the subject's building and information on two sales of units within the subject's building. These units sold in July 2014 and June 2016 for prices ranging of $107,963 and $109,963. These sales total $217,926. The board of review then applies the percentage of ownership of these sales of 15.6946% to arrive at a total value of the building of $1,388,541. Multiplying this value by the subject's percentage of ownerships of 7.8473% arrives at a value for the subject of $108,963.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be all the comparables with most weight given to the board of review's comparables. These properties sold from July 2014 to June 2016 for prices ranging from $47,000 to $109,963. In comparison, the subject's assessment reflects a market value of $94,810 which is within the range of the best comparables in the record. The Board finds the appellant failed to show by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued, and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
