

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Wajeeh Qashmer
DOCKET NO.: 16-31663.001-R-1 through 16-31663.003-R-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Wajeeh Qashmer, the appellant(s), by attorney John W. Zapala, of the Law Offices of John Zapala, P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
16-31663.001-R-1	20-35-403-028-0000	1,000	0	$1,000
16-31663.002-R-1	20-35-403-029-0000	1,000	0	$1,000
16-31663.003-R-1	20-35-403-030-0000	1,000	0	$1,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of three contiguous parcels of vacant land in Chicago, Hyde Park Township, Cook County. The subject contains 9,375 square feet of land and is a Class 1-00 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five suggested equity comparable properties, each in Chicago and within about one-half mile of the subject. The properties ranged from $.225 to $.35 per square foot of land. Comparables #1, #3, #4 and #5 were Class 1-00 properties; comparable #2 was Class 1-90. Documents submitted by the appellant regarding these comparable properties disclosed 2016 assessment data.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $7,029. The subject property has a land assessment of $7,029, or $.75 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on nine suggested equity comparable properties. None of these properties were in Willow Springs. The evidence submitted disclosed sale information for these nine properties, but no land assessment value information for the 2016 lien year.

At hearing, the parties reiterated their respective arguments and rested on the documentary evidence previously submitted.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable(s) #1, #3, #4 and #5. These comparable properties were most similar with the subject and had land assessments that ranged from $.225 to $.35 per square foot of living area. The subject's land assessment of $.75 per square foot of living area falls above the range established by the best comparable properties in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant demonstrated with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and holds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
