

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Chinna Mani
DOCKET NO.: 16-35872.001-C-1 through 16-35872.002-C-1
PARCEL NO.: See Below

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Chinna Mani, the appellant, by attorney Charles J. Masters of Charles J. Masters, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
16-35872.001-C-1	10-22-406-009-0000	7,125	24,532	$31,657
16-35872.002-C-1	10-22-406-010-0000	8,811	24,532	$33,343

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a one-story, brick constructed, two-unit commercial building with 3,060 square feet of building area. The building was constructed in approximately 1955. The units contain 2,500 and 560 square feet of building area, respectively. Each unit has a ceiling height of 8 to 10 feet, roof mounted combination gas forced air heating and air conditioning units and one bathroom. The larger unit also has a walk-in freezer and a walk-in cooler. The larger unit is an owner-occupied grocery store and the smaller unit is used as a hair salon. The property has a 6,710 square foot site and is located in Skokie, Niles Township, Cook County. The property is classified as a class 5-17 one-story commercial building under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance with a 25% level of assessment.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $260,000 as of January 1, 2016. The appraisal was prepared by Mark E. Weinstein, an Illinois certified general appraiser. The appraiser developed the sales comparison approach in estimating the market value of the subject property. The appellant also submitted a copy of the decision of the board of review disclosing the subject property had a total assessment of $80,325 reflecting a market value of $321,300 when using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessment for class 5-17 property of 25%. The appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to $65,000 to reflect the appraised value.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value to be the appraisal submitted by the appellant estimating the subject property had a market value of $260,000 as of January 1, 2016. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $321,300, which is above the appraised value presented by the appellant. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a) & §1910.69(a). The Board has examined the evidence submitted by the appellant and finds that a reduction in the assessed valuation of the subject property is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
