

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Gonzalez
DOCKET NO.: 16-36131.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-35-104-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Gonzalez, the appellant(s), by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,095
IMPR.: $31,613
TOTAL: $35,708

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 99 year old, two-story mixed-use building of masonry construction with 3,380 square feet of living area. Features of the building include three and one-half baths, a partial unfinished basement, and air conditioning. The property has a 3,150 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables. The appellant requested the subject's total assessment be reduced to $19,750.

The appellant also contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted evidence showing that the subject sold on November 1, 2013 for $197,500. Section IV-Recent Sale Data of the appeal form confirmed the closing date, sale price, the sale was not between family or related corporations, and that the sale was a contract for deed. In support, the appellant submitted a copy of the deed and a RealInfo property detail report. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction, in the subject's assessment to $19,750.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $35,708. The subject has a total improvement assessment of $31,613 or $9.35 per square foot of living area. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $357,080 when applying a 10% level of assessment for class 2 property as determined by the Cook County Classification Code. In support, the board of review submitted four equity comparables and sale data for comparable #2.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #3, #4, #5 and the board of review's comparables. These comparables are similar in location, construction, stories, age, and size. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $8.15 to $10.66 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $9.35 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified

When overvaluation is claimed, the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 339 Ill. App. 3d 529, 545 (1st Dist. 2002); National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 331 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1042 (3d Dist. 2002) (citing Winnebago Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 179 (2d Dist. 2000)); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. Calumet Transfer, LLC v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 401 Ill. App. 3d 652, 655 (1st Dist. 2010); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.65(c). Having considered the evidence presented, the Board finds that the evidence indicates a reduction is not warranted.

The Board finds that the subject's sale price in November 2013 is reflective of the market value in 2013 and not the 2016 tax lien year. The 2013 sale date is too far removed in time from the January 1, 2016 lien date. Furthermore, the year the subject was sold was in a different assessment triennial than the 2016 tax year. Based on this evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified based on the market data submitted into evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
