

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mohammed Hussain
DOCKET NO.: 16-37832.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-20-208-059-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mohammed Hussain, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 4,959
IMPR.: $44,548
TOTAL: $49,507

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a two-story, frame and masonry dwelling that is 70 years old. The property has a 6,840 square foot site, and is located in Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The appellant also contends that the subject contains 3,234 square feet of living area, while the board of review lists the subject as containing 3,516 square feet of living area. In support, the appellant provided a photocopy of a plat of survey from 2003.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review-Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $49,507. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $44,548. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

At hearing both parties rested on their written submissions.

Conclusion of Law

Initially, the Board finds the subject property contains 3,516 square feet of living area as the Board is unable to accurately determine the square footage of living area from the survey. Additionally, the survey was completed in 2003. Accordingly, the subject's improvement assessment per square foot is $12.67.

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's equity comparable #2, as well as comparables #1 through #4 submitted by the board of review, as they are most similar to the subject in size, design, location, and amenities. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $11.94 to $14.78 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $12.67 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Even utilizing the appellant's proposed square footage of living area of 3,234, the improvement assessment per square foot of $13.68 falls within this range as well. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
