

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Anita Coleman
DOCKET NO.: 16-39020.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-04-306-019-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Anita Coleman, the appellant, by attorney Stephanie Park, of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Inverness; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 3,453
IMPR.: $32,056
TOTAL: $35,509

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 40-year-old, two-story dwelling of frame construction with 1,837 square feet of living area. Features of the home include a full basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 4,186 square foot site and is located in Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on eight suggested equity comparable row houses located within the same subdivision as the subject property.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $35,509. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $32,056 or $17.45 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparables within the same subdivision as the subject property.

In written rebuttal, appellant's attorney submitted a brief arguing that the board of review's comparables should be given no weight because they are all row house comparables and cannot be considered as a matter of law. In support of this proposition, appellant's attorney cited Pace Realty Group, Inc. v. The Property Tax Appeal Board, 306 Ill.App.3rd. 718, 713 N.E.2d 1249, 239 Ill.Dec.339 (1999).

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board gave appellant's Pace Realty argument no weight. Pursuant to Pace Realty Group, Inc. v. The Property Tax Appeal Board, 306 Ill.App.3rd. 718, 713 N.E.2d 1249, 239 Ill.Dec.339 (1999), the Appellate Court found that in determining what properties are truly comparable, there is error as a matter of law when the selection of comparables includes a property which has also received the same contested assessment. In this case, the appellant submitted no evidence showing that any of the board of review's comparables are contested. Moreover, the appellant failed to explain why its own row house comparables should be considered and the board of review's should not.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be all of the appellant's comparables, and all of the board of review's comparables. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $14.58 to $18.21 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $17.45 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
