

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Bhavinkumar Ganhi
DOCKET NO.: 16-39045.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-25-317-033-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Bhavinkumar Ganhi, the appellant(s), by attorney Stephanie Park, of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Inverness; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,407
IMPR.: $15,378
TOTAL: $17,785

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a 43-year-old, one-story, building of frame and masonry construction containing 1,430 square feet of gross building area. Features of the subject include a crawl space, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a one and one-half-car garage. The property is situated on 8,024 square feet in Streamwood, Hanover Township, Cook County. The property is a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a settlement statement disclosing the subject property was purchased from Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) REO #C140HZ6 on February 26, 2016, for $106,200. The subject's sale price reflects a market value of $74.27 per square foot of gross building area including land. The appellant also submitted an affidavit of Bhavinkumar Ganhi attesting he purchased the subject for $106,200 in an arm's-length transaction on February 26, 2016; and that it was not purchased in settlement of an installment contract, contract for deed or a foreclosure. The appellant included information in Section IV—Recent Sale Data of the Residential Appeal that the subject was purchased from Fannie Mae; was not sold as a transfer between related parties; and was advertised and sold through a realtor. The appellant failed to disclose how the sale transaction was settled. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to reflect the purchase price when using the 2016 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $17,785. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $177,850, or $124.37 per square foot of gross building area, when using the 2016 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on eight suggested comparable sales. The board of review also submitted a brief in which it argued the subject was sold as compulsory foreclosure property in a transaction that was not at arm's-length and at fair cash value. The board of review appended a deed trail that disclosed a lis pendens and foreclosure notice, Judicial Sale Deed granted to Fannie Mae, and a Special Warranty Deed granted from Fannie Mae to the appellant.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant has not met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board accords minimal weight to the affidavit of Bhavinkumar Ganhi. The affiant attested that the transaction was at arm's-length without evidence establishing the affiant's qualifications to render a legal conclusion. The affiant also attested that the subject was not purchased in settlement of an installment contract, contract for deed, or a foreclosure. The appellant failed to explain exactly what alternative methods existed to settle the transaction.

In addressing the appellant's market value argument based on the recent sale, the Board finds that the sale of the subject in February 2016 for $106,200 is a "compulsory sale." The evidence disclosed that the subject was sold as "REO" property. REO is an abbreviation for "real estate owned." Black's Law Dictionary, "REO" (10th ed. 2014). Real Estate Owned is defined as "Property acquired by a lender, usu. through foreclosure, in satisfaction of a debt. - Abbr. REO." Black's Law Dictionary, "real estate owned" (10th ed. 2014). A "compulsory sale" is defined as:

(i) the sale of real estate for less than the amount owed to the mortgage lender or mortgagor, if the lender or mortgagor has agreed to the sale, commonly referred to as a "short sale" and (ii) the first sale of real estate owned by a financial institution as a result of a judgment of foreclosure, transfer pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or consent judgment, occurring after the foreclosure proceeding is complete.

35 ILCS 200/1-23.

Real property in Illinois must be assessed at its fair cash value, which can only be estimated absent any compulsion on either party.

Illinois law requires that all real property be valued at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale where the owner is ready, willing, and able to sell but not compelled to do so, and the buyer is likewise ready, willing, and able to buy, but is not forced to do so.

Bd. of Educ. of Meridian Cmty. Unit Sch. Dist. No. 223 v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 961 N.E. 2d 794, 802 (2d Dist. 2011) (citing Chrysler Corp. v. Ill. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 69 Ill. App. 3d 207, 211 (2d Dist. 1979)).

The Board may consider market value evidence, such as sales of comparable properties submitted by the parties, to determine whether the subject was sold at fair cash value. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c)(4); See Calumet Transfer LLC v. Illinois Property Tax Appeal Board, 401 Ill.App.3d 652 (1st Dist. 2010).

The appellant did not submit comparables or other evidence to establish that the sale of the subject was for fair cash value. The board of review submitted sale comparables that contained property characteristics similar with the subject. Comparables #1, #3, #4 and #6 are most similar with the subject, and sold from October 2015 through October 2016 for prices ranging from $151.91 to $178.96 per square foot of gross building area including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $124.37 per square foot of gross building area including land, which is below the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. The subject's sale price of $106,200, or $74.27 per square foot of gross building area including land is below the range established by the market data.

In determining the fair cash value of the subject property and all relevant factors, the Board finds that the appellant did not submit enough evidence to show the subject was overvalued. Therefore, the Board finds that the appellant has not met its burden by a preponderance of the evidence and that the subject does not warrant a reduction based upon the market data submitted into evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
