

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Monika Waszkiewicz
DOCKET NO.: 16-40946.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 07-05-202-032-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Monika Waszkiewicz, the appellant(s), by attorney Stephanie Park, of Park & Longstreet, P.C. in Inverness; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,853
IMPR.: $27,445
TOTAL: $31,298

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with a 48-year-old, two-story, building of frame and masonry construction. The parties differed as to the amount of square feet of gross building area. Features of the subject include central air conditioning, one fireplace and a two-car garage. The property is situated on 9,067 square feet of land in Hoffman Estates, Schaumburg Township, Cook County. The subject is a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant raises a contention of law and contends assessment inequity as the bases of the appeal. In support of the contention of law, the appellant submitted a property record card for the subject dated February 17, 1999, disclosing the subject contained 1,608 square feet of gross living area and a partial finished basement, and was a multi-level improvement. The appellant also submitted photographs and an affidavit, attesting that the subject contained “substantial portions of living area below grade” and contained 1,608 feet of living area. In support of the equity argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested equity comparable properties.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $31,298. The board of review cited a gross building area of 2,271 square feet. Based on this size, the subject property has an improvement assessment of $27,445, or $12.08 per square foot of gross building area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three suggested equity comparable properties.

In rebuttal, the appellant argued that the comparable properties submitted as evidence by the board of review should be given diminished weight because they were dissimilar to the subject in various key property characteristics. The appellant also claimed the board of review “did not dispute” the issue of the subject’s improvement size. The appellant reaffirmed the request for an assessment reduction.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raises a contention of law. “Unless otherwise provided by law or stated in the agency's rules, the standard of proof in any contested case hearing conducted under this Act by an agency shall be the preponderance of the evidence.” 5 ILCS 100/10-15. The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted based on the argument the subject contained 1,608 square feet of living area.

The property index card dated from 1999. The appellant did not submit evidence of the current improvement size. The Board also finds that, contrary to the appellant’s rebuttal contention, the board of review did dispute the appellant’s argument of improvement size where it cited 2,271 square feet of living area. Therefore, for the purposes of this decision, the Board finds the subject contained 2,271 square feet of living area. The Board finds the appellant’s contention of law falls short of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparable properties to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparable(s) #1, #2 and #3. These comparable properties were most similar with the subject and had improvement assessments that ranged from $12.46 to $13.21 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $12.08 per square foot of gross building area falls below the range established by the best comparable properties in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and holds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
