

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: 1725 W. Division Condo Assoc
DOCKET NO.: 16-43761.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-06-406-044-1002

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are 1725 W. Division Condo Assoc, the appellant(s), by attorney Kelly J. Keeling, of KBC Law Group in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 2,834
IMPR.: $58,648
TOTAL: $61,482

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2016 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a residential condominium unit with 15.17% ownership in the common elements. It is located in a three story, masonry building with six residential units. The building is 92 years old and is situated on a 6,229 square foot site. It is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County, and is classified as Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Classification Ordinance.

The subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year, identified by docket number 15-37541.002-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $53,096 based on the evidence contained in the record. The appellant indicated that the subject was owner-occupied and that 2015 and 2016 are within the same general assessment period for residential property. No evidence of owner-occupancy was provided by the appellant, however.

The appellant only submitted a copy of the 2015 decision in support of an assessment reduction.

The board of review submitted a sale analysis and indicated the subject did not receive a homeowner's exemption for the 2016 tax year.

No rebuttal evidence was submitted by the appellant.

Conclusion of Law

Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should not be carried forward to the subsequent year.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2015 assessment. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property was owner-occupied for the 2016 year, however. The appellant could have submitted rebuttal evidence to show the subject property received its homeowner's exemption for the 2016 tax year but failed to do so. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
