

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: R. Randall & Susan Flowers
DOCKET NO.: 17-04142.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 06-25-136-002

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are R. Randall & Susan Flowers, the appellants; and the Franklin County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Franklin County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 555
IMPR.: $10,112
TOTAL: $10,667

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellants timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Franklin County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a bungalow style single family dwelling that has 1,288 square feet of living area and is approximately 47 years old. Features include an unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a two-car garage. The subject has a 7,200 square foot site located in Tyrone Township, Franklin County.

The appellants in this appeal submitted an appraisal to demonstrate that the subject property was overvalued. The appraiser developed the sales comparison approach to value in arriving at an opinion of value for the subject property of $32,000 as of August 18, 2017.

The appellants also submitted the final decision issued by the Franklin County Board of Review disclosing the subject property's final assessment of $13,165. The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $39,546 when applying Franklin County's 2017 three-year average median level of assessment of 33.29%. Based on this evidence, the appellants requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $10,667.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" or any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a).

Conclusion of Law

The appellants contend the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellants met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellants in this appeal submitted an appraisal of the subject property in support of the contention that the subject property was overvalued. The appraiser developed the sales comparison approach to value in arriving at an opinion of value for the subject property of $32,000 as of August 18, 2017. The board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or refute the evidence submitted by the appellant as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a). Therefore, the board of review was found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.69(a). The subject's assessment reflects an estimated market value of $39,546, greater than the appraisal submitted by the appellant. Therefore, the Boards find a reduction in the assessed valuation of the subject property is warranted commensurate with the appellants' request.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
