

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Alex Haussmann
DOCKET NO.: 17-20918.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-18-117-009-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Alex Haussmann, the appellant, by attorney Michael R. Davies, of Ryan Law LLP in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,625
IMPR.: $29,979
TOTAL: $35,604

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story<sup>1</sup> dwelling of stucco exterior construction with 1,895 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 104 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, air conditioning, and a two-car detached garage. The property has a 6,250 square foot site and is located in Oak Park, Oak Park Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables that have the same classification and neighborhood codes as the subject property. The comparables are improved with "1.5-1.9-story" dwellings of frame or stucco exterior construction ranging in size from 2,132 to 2,358 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 104 to 110 years old, have partial or full unfinished basements, and air conditioning. One comparable has a fireplace, and three comparables have either a one-car or a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $25,637 to $35,973 or from $11.49 to $15.93 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $21,774 or $11.49 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $35,604. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $29,979 or $15.82 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that have the same neighborhood code as the subject property. Three of the comparables have the same classification code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with 1.5-story dwellings of stucco exterior construction containing from 1,772 to 2,025 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 96 to 109 years old and have full basements with one having a finished area. One comparable has air conditioning, one comparable has a fireplace, and each comparable has a garage ranging in size from a two-car to a three-car. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $32,947 to $38,204 or from $16.27 to $21.56 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #1, #2, #4 and #5 due to their considerably larger dwelling sizes when compared to the subject. The board also gives less weight to the board of review comparable #2 due to its different "2-03" classification code when compared to the subject's "2-04" classification code.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparable #3 as well as the board of review comparables #1, #3 and #4. These comparables are closer in dwelling size to the subject property and most similar to the subject in location, design, exterior construction, age, and other features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $15.29 to $18.27 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $15.82 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the most similar comparables contained in this record. After considering adjustments to these comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
