

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jane McClelland
DOCKET NO.: 17-20944.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-11-207-036-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jane McClelland, the appellant, by attorney Michael R. Davies, of Ryan Law LLP in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $18,511
IMPR.: $47,513
TOTAL: $66,024

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 2,502 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 67 years old. Features of the home include a full basement with finished area, air conditioning, two fireplaces, and a 2-car attached garage. The property has a 19,486 square foot site and is located in River Forest, River Forest Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-04 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of frame and masonry or masonry exterior construction containing from 2,568 to 2,960 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 63 or 67 years old. One comparable has a partial basement with finished area, and two comparables have a concrete slab or a crawl space foundation. Each comparable has air conditioning, a fireplace, and either a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $47,781 to $55,076 or $17.66 and $18.61 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $44,185 or $17.66 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $66,024. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $47,513 or $18.99 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables that are located within the same block and the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction containing from 2,279 to 2,797 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 66 years old. One comparable has a partial basement, and two comparables have a concrete slab or a crawl space foundation. Two comparables have either one or three fireplaces. Each comparable has air conditioning and a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $46,917 to $58,836 or from $19.17 to $22.39 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted six suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to both parties comparables #2 and #3 because they lack a basement when compared to the subject's full basement with finished area.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be both parties comparables #1 because they are similar to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size, basement, and some features. These two comparables have improvement assessments of $17.66 and $21.04 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $18.99 per square foot of living area is supported by the two best comparables contained in this record. After considering adjustments to these comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex

Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
