

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Michael Johnson
DOCKET NO.: 17-21086.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-13-106-009-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Michael Johnson, the appellant, by Amy C. Floyd, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,712
IMPR.: $18,296
TOTAL: $22,008

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,248 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 53 years old. Features of the home include a full finished basement, one fireplace, and a two-car garage. The property has an 8,250 square foot site and is located in Palatine, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of frame, masonry, or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,035 to 1,510 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 50 to 72 years old. Two comparables have a partial basement, and one comparable has central air conditioning. The appellant reported "Yes" for one comparable within the fireplace section of the grid analysis. Furthermore, the appellant's attorney failed to provide any information regarding garages or proximity to the subject within the grid analysis. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $12,616 to $16,941 or from $11.22 to $12.19 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $15,051 or $12.06 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $22,008. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $18,296 or $14.66 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code and the same block as the subject property. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,248 or 1,521 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 52 or 53 years old. Three comparables have a partial basement and central air conditioning, one comparable has a full finished basement, and each comparable has a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $21,645 to $25,016 or from $14.47 to $17.34 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives reduced weight to the appellant's comparables as the appellant's attorney failed to provide descriptive property characteristics for each comparable within the grid analysis, such as garages, which detracts from the weight of the evidence.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review comparables which are located within the subject's same block. These comparables are also identical or nearly identical to the subject in other property characteristics, except for differences to the comparables #1 through #3 larger dwelling sizes and partial unfinished basements in contrast to the subject's full finished basement. The Board further finds the board of review comparable #4 is the best comparable in this record since it is identical to the subject in most respects. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $14.47 to $17.34 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $14.66 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables contained in this record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
