

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Michael Battaglia
DOCKET NO.: 17-21220.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 02-19-419-001-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Michael Battaglia, the appellant, by attorney Ryan Schaeffges, of the Law Office of Ryan Schaeffges, P.C. in Wheeling; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,210
IMPR.: $23,006
TOTAL: $29,216

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a multi-level dwelling of frame exterior construction with 1,470 square feet of living area.¹ The dwelling is approximately 46 years old. Features of the home include a partial basement with finished area, central air conditioning, a fireplace, and a two-car garage. The property has a 10,800 square foot site and is located in Hoffman Estates, Palatine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-34 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with multi-level dwellings of frame exterior construction each containing 1,470 square feet of living area. The dwellings are either 46 or 47 years old. Each comparable has a partial basement with finished area and a two-car garage. Two comparables have central air conditioning. One comparable has a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $19,478 to $21,138 or from $13.25 to $14.38 per square foot of living area.

The appellant submitted a copy of the 2017 final decision issued by the Cook County Board of Review disclosing the subject was a Class 2-34 property and establishing a total assessment for the subject of $29,216. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $23,006 or $15.65 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $20,154 or $13.71 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" for a different parcel than the subject. However, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables for similar class code 2-34 dwellings that are located within the same neighborhood code, block and/or street as the subject. The comparables are improved with multi-level dwellings of frame exterior construction containing either 1,470 or 1,503 square feet of living area. The dwellings are each 46 years old and have partial basements with finished area. Three comparables have central air conditioning. Three comparables have one fireplace. Each comparable has a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $23,226 to $26,939 or from $15.80 to $17.92 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted seven suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The parties' comparables are nearly identical to the subject in location, design, exterior construction, age, dwelling size, basement, and most features. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables as they are located in the same block as the subject property and have nearly identical property index numbers to the subject. The Board notes that these comparables were submitted for another subject but were still considered by the Board due to their close proximity and their similar attributes when compared to the subject. The parties' comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $19,478 to $26,939 or from $13.25 to $17.92 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $23,006 or $15.65 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the parties' comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
