

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Michael Strojny
DOCKET NO.: 17-21678.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 01-13-200-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Michael Strojny, the appellant, by attorney John Rock, of Rock Fusco & Connelly, LLC in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $14,187
IMPR.: $35,526
TOTAL: $49,713

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 1,936 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 98 years old. Features of the home include a partial basement with a formal recreation room, central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a 3.5-car garage. The property has a 70,937 square foot site and is located in Inverness, Barrington Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal concerning the improvement. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of class 2-05 dwellings of frame exterior construction. The homes range in age from 88 to 165 years old and range in size from 1,766 to 2,046 square feet of living area. Each dwelling has either a full or partial unfinished basement and two of the comparables each have central air conditioning. Each comparable has a fireplace and two of the comparables have three-car garages. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $29,632 to $30,948 or from $14.62 to $16.78 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduced improvement assessment of $28,304 or $14.62 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $49,713. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $35,526 or $18.35 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables, located in Barrington and none of which are located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables consist of two-story class 2-05 dwellings of stucco or frame exterior construction. The homes range in age from 92 to 130 years old and range in size from 1,058 to 2,175 square feet of living area. Each dwelling has a full or partial basement, two of which have formal recreation rooms. Two comparables have central air conditioning, one dwelling has two fireplaces and each comparable has from a 2-car to a 3.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $20,991 to $46,697 or from $19.84 to $21.47 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of seven equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board has given reduced weight to the board of review comparables which each differ from the subject in location and comparables #1 and #3 are each substantially smaller than the subject dwelling.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables which are similar to the subject in location, class, dwelling size and some features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $29,632 to $30,948 or from $14.62 to $16.78 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $35,526 or $18.35 per square foot of living area falls above the range of the best comparables in this record both in terms of overall improvement assessment and on a per-square-foot basis which appears to be justified given the subject's formal recreation room which is not a feature of any of these comparables along with the subject's additional fireplace amenity when compared to these properties. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
