

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Stephen Mui
DOCKET NO.: 17-22771.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-19-432-029-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Stephen Mui, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $13,800
IMPR.: $41,052
TOTAL: $54,852

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

ANALYSIS

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame construction with 3,300 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 125 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement. The property has a 3,000 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity in regard to the subject improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables with varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $38,764 to $44,116 or from $10.61 to $10.80 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $54,852. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $41,052 or $12.44 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables with varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $33,070 to $50,806 or from $12.48 to $17.60 per square foot of living area.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds neither party submitted comparables truly similar to the subject. The comparables submitted by both parties were dissimilar to the subject in age, size, contained a garage and/or central air conditioning which the subject does not have. The Board finds, however, the comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $10.61 to $17.60 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $12.44 per square foot of living area is within the range established by the comparables in this record. After considering the similarities and differences in the comparables to the subject, the Board finds the subject's assessment is supported.

Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
