

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: William Drehkoff
DOCKET NO.: 17-23117.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-08-319-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are William Drehkoff, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $26,879
IMPR.: $42,187
TOTAL: $69,066

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 2,478 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 101 years old. Features of the home include a partial basement with finished area, central air conditioning and one fireplace. The property has a 14,933 square foot site located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with similar class 2-06 dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 3,740 to 4,767 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 66 to 109 years old. The comparables have full basements, one of which has finished area. Two comparables each have central air conditioning, one or three fireplaces and a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $58,066 to $73,381 or from $15.01 to $15.53 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $37,938 or $15.31 per square foot of living area.

The appellant's submission included a copy of the "Cook County Board of Review" final decision dated December 2, 2017 disclosing the subject has a total assessment of $69,066. The submission by the appellant also revealed that the subject has a land assessment of $26,879 and an improvement assessment of $42,187 or $17.02 per square foot of living area.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Note on Appeal" nor any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal by letter dated August 15, 2019.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

Initially, the Board finds the board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board.

The Board finds the only evidence of assessment equity was submitted by the appellant. The Board finds that none of the comparables are particularly similar to the subject but for location and design. Each comparable has varying degrees of dissimilarity to the subject in age, dwelling size, foundation and most features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $58,066 to $73,381 or from $15.01 to $15.53 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $42,187 or $17.02 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the appellant's comparables on an overall basis but is higher on a per square foot basis. However, the subject's higher per square foot basis is logical given its significantly smaller dwelling size in relation to each of the comparables in the record and the well-known real estate principle of economies of scale which states that as the dwelling size increases, its price per square foot decreases, and vice versa. Taxpayers who object to an assessment on the basis of lack of uniformity bear the burden of proving the disparity of assessments by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). After analysis of the appellant's data, the Board finds the appellant has not met this burden.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
