

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: John Hatzigiannis
DOCKET NO.: 17-27142.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-27-103-026-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are John Hatzigiannis, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss of Schiller Law P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,403
IMPR.: $30,828
TOTAL: $36,231

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story frame and masonry dwelling with 1,872 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 89 years old. Features of the home include a full basement with finished area, central air-conditioning, a fireplace, and a 2-car garage. The property has a 7,205 square foot site and is located in Park Ridge, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted limited information on four comparable properties located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables consist of similar class 2-05 properties of frame and masonry exterior construction. The dwellings were built from 67 to 69 years ago and range in size from 1,958 to 2,162 square feet of living area. No information was provided about the foundation type and/or finish of the comparables, or whether the dwellings feature central air-conditioning, fireplaces and/or garages. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $23,750 to $30,797 or from $12.13 to $14.36 per square foot of living area.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's total assessment be reduced to $30,450. The request would lower the subject's improvement assessment to $25,047 or $13.38 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $36,291. The subject has an improvement assessment of $30,888 or $16.50 per square foot of living area.

In support of its argument the board of review submitted information on four comparable properties located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with similar class 2-05 frame and masonry dwellings that were built from 63 to 69 years ago and range in size from 1,591 to 2,030 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a full or partial basement, two with finished area, and a 1-car to a 2-car garage. Three comparables have central air-conditioning. One comparable has a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $26,808 to $34,171 or from $16.52 to $17.35 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as a basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity, and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight suggested comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to appellant's comparables as no information was provided as to their foundation type and/or finish, or whether the dwellings feature central air-conditioning, fireplaces and/or garages for which the Board to make a meaningful comparison to the subject. The Board also gives weight to board of review comparables #1 and #2 which each have an unfinished basement, dissimilar to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of value to be board of review comparables #3 and #4 which are similar to the subject property in location, design, size and most features, although each comparable is at least 20 years newer than the subject. These comparables had improvement assessments of $26,808 and $33,422 or $16.85 and $16.66 per square foot of living area, respectively. The subject's improvement assessment of $30,888 or $16.50 per square foot of living area which falls between the values of the best comparables submitted for the Board's consideration on an overall basis but below their values on a per square foot basis. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds that the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and no reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
