

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Robert Bettenhausen
DOCKET NO.: 17-27398.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 28-30-302-049-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Robert Bettenhausen, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,256
IMPR.: $12,527
TOTAL: $16,783

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of one-story, single family dwelling of frame construction. The dwelling was constructed in 1901. The property is a class 2-03 per the Cook County Real Property Classification Ordinance. The property is located in Tinley Park, Bremen Township, Cook County

The subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under docket number 15-21166.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $11,535 based upon a decision by the Property Tax Appeal Board. The appellant requested that the subject's 2015 assessment be carried forward to the 2017 tax year. The appellant also requested a change in the subject's classification from a 2-03 to 2-02 and a change in the subject's amenities.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" wherein the final assessment of the subject property totaling $16,783 was disclosed. The board of review submitted four sale comparables and a brief stating the subject does not meet the requirements of a rollover. Specifically, the appellant's prior 2015 PTAB decision is not within the same triennial assessment cycle as 2017 tax year and the subject is not owner-occupied.

In rebuttal, the appellant reaffirmed their request to carry forward the subject's 2015 assessment and that PTAB correct the subject's class and amenities.

Conclusion of Law

After reviewing the record and considering the evidence, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal. Pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds the prior year's decision should not be carried forward to the subsequent year subject only to equalization.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's 2015 assessment. The record further indicates that the subject property is not an owner-occupied dwelling and contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction subsequent to the Board's decision. The appellant's address and the subject's address are different and the pleadings do not state that the subject is owner occupied. Furthermore, 2016 and 2017 are not within the same general assessment period. Since the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision.

Regarding appellant's request for a change in class and amenities, the Board finds that the appellant's evidence of a prior Board decision confirming the subject's class as a 2-02 is indicative of the 2015 tax year. The appellant did not submit any evidence such as survey or affidavit showing that the subject size and the subject's amenities for the 2017 tax year. Therefore, a change in the subject's class and amenities is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
