

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Olga Porto
DOCKET NO.: 17-29090.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-04-328-015-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Olga Porto, the appellant, by attorney Robert Rosenfeld, of Robert H. Rosenfeld and Associates, LLC in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,073
IMPR.: $81,459
TOTAL: $86,532

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of stucco exterior construction with 2,960 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 32 years old. Features of the home include a full basement with finished area, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 6,150 square foot site and is located in La Grange, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-78 dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction that range in size from 2,488 to 3,362 square feet of living area and range in age from 52 to 62 years old. The comparables have partial or full basements with two having finished basement area. Two comparables have central air conditioning, one comparable has two fireplaces and each comparable has a two-car or a three-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $62,227 to $78,294 or for $23.29 and $25.01 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's improvement assessment to $70,626 or $23.86 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $86,532. The subject has an improvement assessment of $81,459 or $27.52 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story, class 2-78 dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction that range in size from 2,339 to 2,975 square feet of living area and range in age from 4 to 30 years old. Each comparable has a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. Three comparables each have a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $64,486 to $83,746 or from $27.57 to $28.70 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The record contains seven equity comparables for the Board's consideration, none of which are truly similar to the subject due to differences in age, dwelling size and/or features. For example, the appellant's comparables are considerably older dwellings and one comparable also has a smaller dwelling size, unfinished basement and lack of central air conditioning when compared to the subject. The board of review comparables have unfinished basements, two have considerably smaller dwelling sizes and one comparable is a significantly newer dwelling when compared to the subject. Nevertheless, these comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $62,227 to $83,746 or from $23.29 to $28.70 per square foot of living area. The subject has an improvement assessment of $81,459 or $27.52 per square foot of living area, which falls within the range established by the comparables in this record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences in age, dwelling size and features when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not prove by clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
