

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Bill Katris
DOCKET NO.: 17-29206.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-19-122-038-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Bill Katris, the appellant, by attorney Herbert B. Rosenberg of Schoenberg Finkel Beederman Bell Glazer, LLC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $15,810
IMPR.: $41,690
TOTAL: $57,500

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story single-family dwelling of frame construction. The dwelling is approximately 109 years old and has 2,344 square feet of living area. The property has a 3,437 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2015 tax year should be carried forward to the 2017 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket Number 15-26319.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $57,500 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The appellant's attorney asserted that tax years 2015 and 2017 are within the same general assessment period and requested that the 2015 assessment of $57,500 be carried forward to the 2017 tax year.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject property had an improvement assessment of $55,100 and a total assessment of $70,910 and that 2015 was the first year of the general assessment cycle for the subject property.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparable properties with varying degrees of similarity to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $52,618 to $70,748 or from $23.20 to $55.39 per square foot of living area, respectively. Comparables #2 and #3 also contain sale information showing that the properties sold in June 2015 and August 2017 for prices of $1,550,000 and $1.00, respectively. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Appellant's counsel submitted a brief in rebuttal critiquing the board of review's response to the appeal. Counsel argued that the board of review acknowledged that 2015 and 2017 are within the sale general assessment period but did not acknowledge that the subject property is owner-occupied and, instead, presented a uniformity analysis along with two market sale comparables. Counsel also submitted a copy of the Property Tax Exemption History for the subject which reflects that the property has had the Homeowner Exemption from 2014 through 2017.

Conclusion of Law

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before this Board a prior tax year under Docket Number 15-26319.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the subject's assessment to $57,500. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds the record shows the subject property is located in Lake View Township, Cook County, in which the triennial general assessment period began with the 2015 tax year and continues through the 2017 tax year. In addition, there is no evidence in the record that indicates the subject subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board was reversed or modified upon review. As a result, the Board further finds section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code is controlling in this appeal. (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review. (35 ILCS 200/16-185)

The Board finds this record disclosed the subject property is an owner-occupied residence and that the 2015 and 2017 tax years are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence showing the Board's 2015 decision was reversed or modified upon review or that the subject property sold in an arm's-length transaction establishing a different fair cash value. For these reasons, the Board finds its 2015 decision reflecting an assessment of $57,500 shall be carried forward to the subsequent 2017 tax year.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
