

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Tom Honan
DOCKET NO.: 17-29812.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-07-325-032-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Tom Honan, the appellant(s), by attorney Spiro Zarkos, of Verros Berkshire, PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $11,160
IMPR.: $42,376
TOTAL: $53,536

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with an eight-year-old, three-story, multi-family, building of masonry construction containing 4,642 square feet of gross building area. Features of the subject include a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning and a three-car garage. The property is situated on 3,720 square feet of land in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is a Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four suggested equity comparable properties.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" for a property different than the subject property. The board of review submitted information on four suggested equity comparable properties.

The total assessment for the subject was $53,536. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $42,376, or $9.13 per square foot of gross building area.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparable properties to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity was submitted by the appellant but, consisted of suggested properties that were not similar with the subject in various key characteristics. The appellant's comparables ranged from 1,517 to 9,312 square feet of living area, whereas the subject contained 4,642 square feet. Only the appellant's comparable #1 was similar with the subject in living area yet, contained a slab foundation and no garage. Only one of the appellant's comparables included a garage, whereas the subject included a three-car garage. Two of the appellant's comparables did not include a basement, whereas the subject included a full unfinished basement. Three of the appellant's comparables were not in proximity from the subject, being from 0.8 miles to 1.1 miles from the subject.

Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and holds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
