

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Dean Pissios
DOCKET NO.: 17-31235.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-22-423-025-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Dean Pissios, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,966
IMPR.: $33,269
TOTAL: $40,235

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a multi-level dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,985 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 53 years old. Features of the dwelling include a partial basement with finished area, central air conditioning,¹ one fireplace, and a 2.5-car garage. The property has an 8,708 square foot site and is located in Park Ridge, Maine Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-34 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

¹ The appellant's attorney reports "1" or "2" for central air conditioning within the grid analysis. The Board has determined "1" signifies "Yes" and "2" signifies "No" for central air conditioning based upon the description of the subject property provided by the board of review.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. Two comparables are also located within the same block as the subject. The comparables are improved with multi-level dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,679 to 2,176 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 49 to 52 years old and each have a partial basement with finished area. Three comparables each have central air conditioning and one fireplace, and each comparable has a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $27,032 to $33,119 or $15.22 and $16.10 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $31,522 or $15.88 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $40,235. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $33,269 or $16.76 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. Three comparables are also located within the same block as the subject. The comparables are improved with multi-level dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,624 to 2,092 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 52 or 54 years old, and each have a partial basement with finished area. Three comparables each have central air conditioning, and each comparable has one fireplace and a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $29,357 to $35,669 or from $17.05 to $19.52 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to both parties' comparable #3 and the board of review comparable #4 which are smaller in dwelling size to the subject than the other comparables in this record.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be both parties' remaining comparables. The Board gives greater weight to these five comparables which are closer in size to the subject dwelling than the other three comparables. In addition, these comparables are very similar in location, design, exterior construction, age, foundation and other features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $28,851 to $35,669 or from $15.22 to $18.16 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $33,269 or $16.76 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables contained in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
