

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Christina Riley
DOCKET NO.: 17-31278.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-36-115-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Christina Riley, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,625
IMPR.: $17,265
TOTAL: $22,890

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of two-story dwelling of frame construction with 1,795 square feet of living area. The dwelling was built in 1919. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, a fireplace and a one-car garage. The property has a 6,200 square foot site, and is located in Park Ridge, Maine Township, Cook County.<sup>1</sup> The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The Property Tax Appeal Board takes notice that the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Board the prior year under Docket Number 16-32621.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $22,890 based on an agreement of the parties. Furthermore, the record reveals that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence, as the appeal petition discloses the subject's address is the same as the appellant's address. The Property Tax Appeal Board further takes notice that the 2016 and 2017 tax years are within the same general assessment period for Maine Township.

For this 2017 appeal, the appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $245,000 as of January 1, 2016.

The appellant also submitted a copy of the final decision of the board of review disclosing the property has a total assessment of $32,611, which reflects a market value of $326,110 or $181.68 per square foot of living area, land included, when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

Based on this appraisal evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $24,500.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" nor any evidence in support of its assessed valuation. As a result, the board of review was found to be in default by letter dated August 15, 2019. The board of review's motion to vacate the default order was also denied by the Property Tax Appeal Board at its September 10, 2019 meeting.

Conclusion of Law

The Board finds the subject property was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2016 tax year under Docket Number 16-32621.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $22,890 based on an agreement of the parties. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds the triennial general assessment period for Maine Township began with the 2016 tax year and continues through the 2018 tax year. In addition, there is no evidence in the record that indicates the subject property subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based. As a result, the Board further finds section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code is controlling in this appeal. (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review. (35 ILCS 200/16-185)

The Board finds this record disclosed the subject property is an owner-occupied residence and that the 2016 and 2017 tax years are within the same general assessment period.

As a final point, the board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a) & §1910.69(a).

For these reasons, the Board finds its 2016 decision reflecting an assessment of $22,890 shall be carried forward to the subsequent 2017 tax year.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
