

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Nick Kontos
DOCKET NO.: 17-31282.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 09-26-426-033-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Nick Kontos, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $9,044
IMPR.: $34,956
TOTAL: $44,000

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of an owner-occupied split-level dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 2,232 square feet of living area.¹ The dwelling was built in 1976. Features of the home include a partial basement with finished area, central air conditioning, and a two-car garage. The property has a 11,670 square foot site, and is located in Maine Township, Cook County.² The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The Board takes notice that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior year under Docket

¹ The appellant's appeal petition disclosed the subject is an owner-occupied dwelling as the appellant's address and the subject property address are the same.

² The only evidence of descriptive data for the subject property in this record was presented by the appellant.

Number 16-32624.001-R-1.³ In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board rendered a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $44,000. The Property Tax Appeal Board further takes notice that the 2016 and 2017 tax years are within the same general assessment period for Maine Township.

For this 2017 tax year appeal, the appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted an appraisal estimating the subject property had a market value of $440,000 as of January 1, 2016.

The appellant also submitted a copy of the final decision of the board of review disclosing the property has a total assessment of $54,375, which reflects a market value of $543,750 or $243.62 per square foot of living area, land included, when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $44,000.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" nor any evidence in support of its assessed valuation. By letter dated September 11, 2019, the Board denied the board of review's motion to vacate the default order.

Conclusion of Law

The Board finds the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2016 tax year under Docket Number 16-32624.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $44,000 based on the evidence submitted by the parties. The Property Tax Appeal Board takes notice that Cook County's triennial general assessment period began in the 2016 tax year and continues through the 2018 tax year. The Board further finds section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code is controlling in this appeal. (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) provides in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review. (35 ILCS 200/16-185)

³ The record disclosed the subject is owner-occupied as the appellant's address and the subject property address were the same.

Therefore, the Board finds that the prior year's decision should be carried forward to the 2017 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The Board finds that 2016 and 2017 are within the same general assessment period for Maine Township. Additionally, the appellant's appeal form indicates the property is owner occupied since the appellant has the same mailing address as the subject property. The record contains no evidence indicating that the assessment year in question is in a different general assessment period.

For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's prior year's decision plus the application of an equalization factor, if any.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
