

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Anastasios Katris
DOCKET NO.: 17-32694.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-18-201-065-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Anastasios Katris, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,252
IMPR.: $26,341
TOTAL: $33,593

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property is improved with dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction containing 1,222 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 50 years old. The appellant's counsel reported features of the home include a craw [sic] and formal rec. room foundation, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 10,360 square foot site and is located in Western Springs, Lyon Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-34 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four comparable sales located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables have sites that range in size from 8,037 to 11,582 square feet of land area. The comparables are improved with similar class 2-34 dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction that range in size from 1,628 to 2,203 square feet of living area. Each comparable has a partial basement with finished area, one or two fireplaces and a two-car garage. The properties sold from November 2015 to June 2016 for prices ranging from $400,250 to $580,000 or from $230.26 to $263.28 per square foot of living area, land included. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's assessment be reduced to $29,978, reflecting a market value of $299,780 or $245.32 per square foot of living area, land included, when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

The appellant also submitted a copy of the final decision of the board of review disclosing the property has a total assessment of $33,593, which reflects a market value of $335,930 or $274.90 per square foot of living area, land included, when applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" nor any evidence in support of its assessed valuation. By letter dated September 11, 2019, the Board denied the board of review's motion to vacate the default order.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the board of review did not timely submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the evidence submitted by the appellant as required by Section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is in default pursuant to Section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Board. (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.40(a); 1910.69(a)). The board of review's effort to have the default vacated was denied by the Property Tax Appeal Board.

The Board finds the only evidence of market value to be the appellant's comparable sales. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparable #1 as its sale occurred in 2015 which is somewhat dated, thus less likely to be indicative of the subject's market value as of the January 1, 2017 assessment date. The board finds the remaining comparables sold more proximate to the assessment date at issue and are relatively similar to the subject location, site size, design, age and features, though each dwelling is larger than the subject dwelling. The comparables sold from February to June 2016 for prices ranging from $400,250 to $580,000 or from $241.90 to $263.28 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $335,930 or $274.90 per square foot of living area, including land, which is below the overall price range established by the best comparable sales in this record but above the range on a square foot basis. Accepted real estate valuation theory provides, all other factors being equal, as the size of a property increases, its per unit value decreases. Likewise, as the size of a property decreases, its per unit value increases. Based on this analysis, the Board finds the subject's higher per square foot value appears to be justified given its smaller dwelling size.

Therefore, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject was overvalued and no reduction in the subject's assessment is justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
