

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Asem Jaber
DOCKET NO.: 17-33891.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 24-06-310-011-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Asem Jaber, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $5,910
IMPR.: $31,871
TOTAL: $37,781

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 2,980 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 12 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, one fireplace and a 3-car garage. The appellant's attorney did not provide sufficient detail in the grid analysis to determine if the subject has central air conditioning. The property has an 11,820 square foot site and is located in Oak Lawn, Worth Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on seven equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with two-story dwellings of frame, masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 2,584 to 3,667 square feet of living area. The comparables range in age from 10 to 62 years old. Four comparables have basements and three comparables have concrete slab or crawl space foundations. Each comparable has a 1-car to a 2.5-car garage. Five comparables each have one fireplace. The appellant's attorney did not provide sufficient detail in the grid analysis to determine if the comparables have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $22,777 to $31,474 or from $7.21 to $9.97 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $26,343 or $8.84 per square foot of living area.

The appellant's submission included a copy of the "Cook County Board of Review" final decision dated February 13, 2018 disclosing the subject has a total assessment of $37,781. The submission by the appellant also revealed that the subject has a land assessment of $5,910 and an improvement assessment of $38,871 or $10.69 per square foot of living area.

The board of review did not submit its "Board of Review Note on Appeal" nor any evidence in support of its assessed valuation of the subject property and was found to be in default by letter dated August 15, 2019. The Cook County Board of Review's Motion to Vacate PTAB's Order of Default was denied by the Property Tax Appeal Board by letter dated September 11, 2019.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the only evidence of assessment equity was submitted by the appellant. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparables #2, #3, #5, #6 and #7 due to their older ages when compared to the subject. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #1 and #4 as they are similar to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size and features; except comparable #1 has a crawl space foundation requiring an upward adjustment. These comparables had improvement assessments of $9.00 and $9.97 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $10.69 per square foot of living area exceeds the assessments of the two best comparables in this record. However, given the subject's larger garage than the two comparables and its full basement in contrast to comparable #1's crawl space foundation, a higher assessment is supported. The Board finds the board of review did not submit any evidence in support of its assessment of the subject property or to refute the appellant's argument as required by section 1910.40(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board and is found to be in default pursuant to section 1910.69(a) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the subject's improvement assessment is supported and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
