

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Jinbo Xu
DOCKET NO.: 17-41114.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 20-11-311-030-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Jinbo Xu, the appellant(s), by attorney Jessica Hill-Magiera, Attorney at Law in Lake Zurich; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,649
IMPR.: $38,848
TOTAL: $42,497

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 18 year old, three-story, townhome dwelling of masonry construction with 1,765 square feet of living area. Features of the dwelling include a slab basement, three baths, and a one-car garage. The property has a 1,106 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Hyde Park Township, Cook County. The record does not disclose whether the subject was owner-occupied during the lien year. The subject is classified as a Class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five suggested sale comparables. The appellant requested a total assessment reduction to $22,213.

The appellant also contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on 16 equity comparables. The appellant requested the subject's total assessment be reduced to $22,213.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $42,497. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $38,848 or $22.01 per square foot of living area. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $424,970 or $240.77 per square foot of living area including land, when applying the 2017 level of assessment of 10.00% for Class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on three suggested sale/equity comparables.

In rebuttal, the appellant distinguished the board of review's sale comparables based on location, size, sale date, age, style, and basement. The appellant distinguished the board of review's equity comparables based on style, basement, garage, size, and age. The appellant reaffirmed request for a reduction in the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

When overvaluation is claimed, the appellant has the burden of proving the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. Cook Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 339 Ill. App. 3d 529, 545 (1st Dist. 2002); National City Bank of Michigan/Illinois v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 331 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1042 (3d Dist. 2002) (citing Winnebago Cnty. Bd. of Review v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 179 (2d Dist. 2000)); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal, a recent arm's length sale of the subject property, recent sales of comparable properties, or recent construction costs of the subject property. Calumet Transfer, LLC v. Prop. Tax Appeal Bd., 401 Ill. App. 3d 652, 655 (1st Dist. 2010); 86 Ill. Admin. Code § 1910.65(c). Having considered the evidence presented, the Board finds that the evidence indicates a reduction is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the appellant's comparables #1 and #2 and the board of review's comparable #2. These comparables are similar in size, location, style, and age. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $136.28 to $270.75 per square foot of living area, including land. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $240.77 per square foot of living area including land, which is within the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The taxpayer also contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #9, #10, #11, #12, #13, #14, #15 and #16 and the board of review's comparable #2. These comparables are similar in location, size, and age. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $18.70 to $23.37 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $22.01 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
