

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Horizon One, LLC
DOCKET NO.: 17-41675.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 29-11-425-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Horizon One, LLC, the appellant, by attorney Gregory P. Diamantopoulos, of Verros Berkshire, PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,088
IMPR.: $16,791
TOTAL: $18,879

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story multi-family dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 3,651 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 54 years old and features a concrete slab foundation. The property has a 5,967 square foot site and is located in Dolton, Thornton Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-11 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood and same street as the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-11 dwellings of masonry exterior construction each with 3,651 square feet of living area and a concrete slab foundation which are either 54 or 55 years old. The comparables have improvement assessments of $14,567 or $14,604 and $3.99 or $4.00 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $14,604 or $4.00 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $18,879. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $16,791 or $4.60 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on three equity comparables located in the same assessment neighborhood as the subject, one on the same street as the subject and two in the subject's "subarea." The comparables are improved with two-story class 2-11 dwellings of masonry exterior construction that range in size from 3,019 to 3,651 square feet of living area. The properties are either 49 or 54 years old. Two of the comparables have a concrete slab foundation and one has a basement with finished area. Two comparables have either a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $14,793 to $16,791 or from $4.60 to $5.05 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted six equity comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gave less weight to board of review comparables #1 and #2 which differ from the subject in age, dwelling size, foundation construction and/or presence of a garage.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the remaining comparables which are located on the same street as the subject, are identical or nearly identical to the subject in age, design, dwelling size and features. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $14,567 to $16,791 or from $3.99 to $4.60 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $16,791 or $4.60 per square foot of living area equates to the upper end of the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. The requirement is satisfied if the intent is evident to adjust the burden with a reasonable degree of uniformity and if such is the effect of the statute enacted by the General Assembly establishing the method of assessing real property in its general operation. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20

Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
