

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Liliana Lohan
DOCKET NO.: 17-41684.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 10-32-130-037-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Liliana Lohan, the appellant, by attorney Spiro Zarkos, of Verros Berkshire, PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $7,809
IMPR.: $62,632
TOTAL: $70,441

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 4,515 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 57 years old. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, central air conditioning, a fireplace and a 2-car garage. The property has an 8,925 square foot site and is located in Niles, Niles Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-08 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located from 2.5 to 4.51 miles to the subject property. The comparables were improved with similar class 2-08 dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction that range in size from 4,287 to 4,798 square feet of living area. The comparables range in age from 19 to 58 years old. Three comparables have a full or partial unfinished basement and one comparable has a crawl-space foundation. Each comparable has central air conditioning, three comparables have one or two fireplaces and each comparable has a 1.5-car, a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $44,500 to 54,779 from $9.27 to $12.28 per square foot of living area. The appellant requested the improvement assessment be reduced to $50,117 or $11.10 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $70,441. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $62,632 or $13.87 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code and three on the same block or within ¼ of a mile as the subject property. The comparables are class 2-04, 2-09 and 2-78. The comparables were improved with one one-story dwelling and three two-story dwellings of masonry or frame and masonry exterior construction that range in size from 2,093 to 5,047 square feet of living area. The comparables range in age from 22 to 58 years old. Each comparable has a full or partial basement with one having finished area, central air conditioning, one or two fireplaces and either a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $33,180 to $79,181 or from $13.99 to $15.85 per square foot of living area. The board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted eight comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gave less weight to the appellant's comparables #1 and #4 as these comparables lack a basement and/or differ in age when compared to the subject. The Board gave less weight to the board of review comparables #1, #3 and #4 as these comparables differ in design and/or considerably smaller in dwelling size when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparable #2 and #3 along with the board of review comparable #2. Even though the appellant's comparables are located over 2 miles from the subject and the board of review comparable is slightly larger than the subject, these comparables have varying degrees of similarity when compared to the subject. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $47,401 to $79,181 or from $10.81 to $15.69 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $62,632 or $13.87 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
