

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: James Athanasopoulos
DOCKET NO.: 17-42848.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 31-03-203-137-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are James Athanasopoulos, the appellant, by attorney Peter D. Verros of Verros Berkshire, PC in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $1,074
IMPR.: $4,871
TOTAL: $5,945

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story¹ dwelling of frame exterior construction with 1,207 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 38 years old. Features of the home include a concrete slab foundation and a one-car garage. The property has a 1,432 square foot site and is located in Country Club Hills, Rich Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted a grid analysis and photographs of the subject and four comparable properties that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story class 2-95 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 1,161 to 1,823 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 38 to 47 years old. Each comparable has a concrete slab foundation, two comparables have central air conditioning and three comparables each have a one-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $2,894 to $5,685 or from $2.49 to $3.12 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $3,537 or $2.93 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $5,945. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $4,871 or $4.04 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted a grid analysis of the subject and four comparable properties located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story class 2-95 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 1,306 to 1,375 square feet of living area. The dwellings are either 39 or 40 years old. Each comparable has a concrete slab foundation and a one-car garage. Two comparables have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $5,292 to $5,792 or from $4.05 to $4.31 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties provided eight suggested comparable properties to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables #2 and #4, as well as board of review comparables #1 and #4 as each has central air conditioning, not a feature the subject enjoys. Furthermore, the appellant's comparables #2 and #4 have considerably larger dwelling sizes when compared to the subject. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant's comparables #1 and #3, along with the board of review comparables #1 and #3. These comparables are similar to the subject in location, dwelling size, classification, age and features, except each dwelling is a two-story design in contrast to the subject's one-story design. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $2,894 to $5,792 or from $2.49 to $4.21 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $4,871 or $4.04 per square foot of living area is within the range established by the best comparables in the record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
