

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Ruth Baruch
DOCKET NO.: 17-43092.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-08-211-018-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Ruth Baruch, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $18,037
IMPR.: $47,343
TOTAL: $65,380

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame exterior construction with 3,229 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 37 years old. Features of the home include a partial unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a two-car garage.¹ The property has a 15,685 square foot site located in Northbrook, Northfield Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-78 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on three equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-78 dwellings ranging in size from 2,586 to 2,723 square feet of living area. The appellant's attorney did not provide any property characteristics such as age, exterior construction, number of bedrooms and bathrooms, dwelling size, basement, central air conditioning, fireplaces and garages for the comparables in this record. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $12.17 to $12.77 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $40,144 or $12.43 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $65,380. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $47,343 or $14.66 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with two-story class 2-78 dwellings of frame exterior construction ranging in size from 3,090 to 3,295 square feet of living area. The dwellings are either 37 or 38 years old. Each comparable has a full unfinished basement, central air conditioning, one fireplace and a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $47,679 to $55,725 or from $15.43 to $17.31 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted seven suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables as the appellant failed to complete a Section V Grid Analysis with descriptive property characteristics for the subject and each comparable, such as central air conditioning, fireplaces, foundation type and garages which detracts from the weight of the evidence.

The board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables as they have varying degrees of similarity to the subject in location, design, age, dwelling size and other features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $47,679 to $55,725 or from $15.43 to $17.31 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $47,343 or $14.66 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record and after considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
