

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: John Houde
DOCKET NO.: 17-44755.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-06-400-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are John Houde, the appellant, by attorney Abby L. Strauss, of Schiller Law P.C. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $39,787
IMPR.: $30,391
TOTAL: $70,178

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,680 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 91 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement, two fireplaces and a one-car garage. The property has a 22,104 square foot site located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal form was marked contention of law as the basis of the appeal. The appellant contends the assessment of the subject property as established by the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2016 tax year should be carried forward to the 2017 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The record shows the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the subject's assessment to $70,178 the prior tax year under Docket Number 16-22442.001-R-1. The appellant's counsel asserted the subject property is an owner-occupied residence and that tax years 2016 and 2017 are within the same general assessment period. Based on this argument, the appellant requested the subject's assessment as determined by the Board for the 2016 tax year be carried forward to the 2017 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $76,747. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted three equity comparables. The evidence provided by the board of review further disclosed that no township equalization factor was applied in 2017 and 2016 was the beginning of the general assessment cycle for the subject property. The board of review did not challenge the appellant's assertion that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2016 tax year should be carried forward to the 2017 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The appellant argued the Property Tax Appeal Board's decision for the 2016 tax year should be carried forward to the 2017 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). The record shows the subject property was the matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior tax year under Docket Number 16-22442.001-R-1. In that appeal, the Board issued a decision lowering the subject's assessment to $70,178.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code provides in relevant part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review. (35 ILCS 200/16-185).

The Board finds section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) is controlling in this matter. The board of review did not refute the appellant's contention of law argument. Based on the statutory mandates of section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185), the Board finds its decision for the 2016 tax year shall be carried forward to the subsequent 2017 tax year. The Board finds the evidence in the record indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence and that the 2016 and 2017 tax years are within the same general assessment period for New Trier Township. The record contains no evidence indicating that the subject property sold in an arms-length transaction establishing a different fair cash value or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board was reversed or modified upon review. For these reasons, the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the Board's prior year's decision of $70,178.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
