

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Howard Harris
DOCKET NO.: 17-44839.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 04-12-203-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Howard Harris, the appellant, by attorney Noah J. Schmidt of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds a reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $18,628
IMPR.: $72,896
TOTAL: $91,524

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) challenging the assessment for the 2017 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 4,288 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 89 years old. Features of the property include central air conditioning, two fireplaces and a two-car attached garage. The property has a 13,306 square foot site and is located in Glencoe, New Trier Township, Cook County.

The appellant marked assessment equity and contention of law as the bases of the appeal. The appellant disclosed that the subject property is an owner-occupied residence that was the subject matter of an appeal before the Property Tax Appeal Board the prior tax year under Docket Number 16-20367.001-R-1. In that appeal the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision lowering the assessment of the subject property to $91,524 based on equity and the weight of the evidence as presented by the parties. The appellant's attorney asserted that tax years 2016 and 2017 are within the same general assessment period.

The appellant also submitted information on five equity comparables improved with two-story dwellings that range in size from 3,794 to 4,562 square feet of living area and in age from 69 to 126 years old. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $46,613 to $99,110 or from $16.47 to $17.02 per square foot of living area.

On the appeal form the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $72,467 for a total revised assessment of $91,095. In the brief the appellant's counsel requested the 2017 assessment be revised so as not to exceed the 2016 assessment of $91,524.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $95,469. The board of review indicated 2016 was the beginning of the general assessment period for the subject property and that the appellant had complied with the requirements of the rollover statute and was willing to stipulate to a revised total assessment of $91,524.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant, in part, raised a contention of law asserting that the assessment of the subject property as established by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2016 tax year should be carried forward to the 2017 tax year pursuant to section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code. (35 ILCS 200/16-185). When a contention of law is raised the burden of proof is a preponderance of the evidence. (See 5 ILCS 100/10-15). The Board finds the appellant met this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that the assessment as established by the Board for the 2016 tax year should be carried forward to the tax year at issue as provided by section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code.

Section 16-185 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-185) states in part:

If the Property Tax Appeal Board renders a decision lowering the assessment of a particular parcel on which a residence occupied by the owner is situated, such reduced assessment, subject to equalization, shall remain in effect for the remainder of the general assessment period as provided in Sections 9-215 through 9-225, unless that parcel is subsequently sold in an arm's length transaction establishing a fair cash value for the parcel that is different from the fair cash value on which the Board's assessment is based, or unless the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board is reversed or modified upon review.

The record disclosed the Property Tax Appeal Board issued a decision reducing the subject's assessment for the 2016 tax year. The record further indicates that the subject property is an owner-occupied dwelling and that 2016 and 2017 are within the same general assessment period. The record contains no evidence indicating the subject property sold in an arm's length transaction after the Board's decision or that the decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board has been reversed or modified upon review. The record also disclosed that no township equalization factor was applied in 2017. The board of review further asserted that the appellant had complied with the so called “rollover statute” and was willing to stipulate to a revision of the 2017 assessment to reflect that issued by the Property Tax Appeal Board for the 2016 tax year. For these reasons the Property Tax Appeal Board finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted to reflect the assessment as established in the Board's decision for the previous tax year.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
