

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: James Svestka
DOCKET NO.: 18-20427.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-30-222-013-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are James Svestka, the appellant, by Amy C. Floyd, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds no change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,265
IMPR.: $11,068
TOTAL: $15,333

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,340 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 94 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and a two-car garage. The property has a 4,375 square foot site and is located in Berwyn, Berwyn Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-03, 1.5 to 1.9-story dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,250 to 1,434 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 97 to 107 years old. One comparable has a full unfinished basement and the three remaining comparables have either crawl space or concrete slab foundations. Two comparables have central air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $6,331 to $7,647 or from $4.63 to $5.33 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $6,981 or $5.21 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $15,333. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $11,068 or $8.26 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the same assessment neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-03, one-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,184 to 1,347 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 88 to 95 years old. Each comparable has a full basement, two of which have recreation rooms, two comparables have central air conditioning and each comparable has either a one-car or a two-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $12,337 to $13,918 or from $9.90 to $11.45 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties provided eight suggested equity comparables to support their respective positions before the Property Tax Appeal Board. The Board gives less weight to the appellant's comparables due to differences from the subject in design and/or features, as three comparables have crawl space or concrete slab foundations in contrast to the subject dwelling which has a basement and none of the comparables are described as having a garage as does the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the comparables submitted by the board of review. These comparables are relatively similar to the subject in dwelling size, design, age and features, except two comparables have recreation rooms in their basements and two comparables have central air conditioning, not features the subject enjoys, suggesting downward adjustments for these features would be required to make the comparables more equivalent to the subject. The comparables have improvement assessments that range from $12,337 to $13,918 or from $9.90 to $11.45 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $11,068 or $8.26 per square foot of living area is below the range established by the best comparables in the record which appears to be justified given it does not have a recreation room or central air conditioning. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
