

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Russell Warye
DOCKET NO.: 18-20658.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 05-07-419-014-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Russell Warye, the appellant(s), by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; the Cook County Board of Review; the Glencoe S.D. #35, and New Trier H.S.D. #203, intervenors, by attorney Scott L. Ginsburg of Robbins Schwartz Nicholas Lifton Taylor in Chicago.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 25,872
IMPR.: $ 178,219
TOTAL: $ 204,091

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) after receiving a decision from the Cook County Board of Review. The instant appeal challenges the assessment for tax year 2018. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a two-story dwelling of masonry construction with 5,749 square feet of living area. The dwelling is eight years old. Features of the home include a full basement with a formal recreation room, central air conditioning, three fireplaces, and a two-car garage. The property's site is 16,170 square feet, and it is located in New Trier Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-09 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. No evidence was submitted as to whether the subject is owner-occupied.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on five equity comparables. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $146,601.

The board of review submitted its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal” disclosing that the total assessment for the subject is $204,091. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $178,219, or $31.00 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the intervenor submitted information on three equity comparables. The intervenor also argued that the appellant’s comparables were not similar to the subject for various reasons.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proven by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof, and that a reduction in the subject’s assessment is not warranted.

Initially, the Board finds that board of review equity comparables #1 and #2 represent the same properties and assessment information as intervenor equity comparables #1 and #2, respectively. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be appellant’s equity comparables #3 and #5, board of review equity comparables #1 and #2, and all of the intervenor’s equity comparables. These equity comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $21.00 to $31.30 per square foot of living area. The subject’s improvement assessment of $31.00 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant has not proven, with clear and convincing evidence, that the subject is inequitably assessed, and that a reduction in the subject’s assessment is not warranted.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
