

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Renee Pederson
DOCKET NO.: 18-23735.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 15-01-110-008-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Renee Pederson, the appellant(s), by attorney Joel R. Monarch, Attorney at Law in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $12,302
IMPR.: $61,780
TOTAL: $74,082

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 2,952 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 90 years old. Features of the home include a full basement, a fireplace and a two-car garage. The property has a 12,950 square foot site located in River Forest Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-06 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $74,082. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $61,780 or $20.93 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables. The board of review's grid sheet indicates the subject was purchased in August 2016 for a price of $790,000.

At hearing, the appellant reviewed the description of the subject property and previously submitted comparable properties. He stated the comparable properties are similar to the subject property in size, location, and construction. The board of review's representative reviewed the board of review's previously submitted comparable properties and stated the properties are similar to the subject property in size, location, and construction. The board's representative stated the subject's recent sale price supports the subject's current assessment and is the best indicator of the subject's fair market value. In support of the subject's market value, the board submitted a printout of the subject's recent assessment history along with a Cook County Clerk's Office printout listing the subject's recent sale and mortgage history. The board of review's submission was entered into evidence without objection and was marked "Exhibit #1". In rebuttal, the appellant argued the subject appeal is based on uniformity of assessment and not the subject's recent sale price.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board gives little weight to the recent sale of the subject because the basis for this appeal is assessment equity, not market value. The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be both parties' comparable properties. These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $19.56 to $26.26 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $20.93 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
