

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Amer & Sonad Abed
DOCKET NO.: 18-26310.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 18-36-321-002-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Amer & Sonad Abed, the appellants, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,493
IMPR.: $17,287
TOTAL: $19,780

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellants timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a multi-level dwelling of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,549 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 10 years old. Features of the dwelling include a partial basement with finished area, one fireplace, and a 2-car garage. The property has a 6,650 square foot site and is located in Justice, Lyons Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-34 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellants contend assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellants submitted information on eight equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-34, multi-level dwellings of frame or frame and masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,176 or 1,867 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 30 to 63 years old, and each comparable has a partial basement with finished area. Six comparables each have a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. Based upon the response in the appellants' grid analysis, the Board is unable to determine if the comparables have air conditioning. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $11,543 to $16,573 or from $8.88 to $10.22 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellants requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $15,173 or $9.80 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $19,780. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $17,287 or $11.16 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with class 2-34, multi-level dwellings of frame and masonry exterior construction with 1,336 or 1,512 square feet of living area. The dwellings are 26 or 40 years old, and each comparable has a partial basement with finished area, central air conditioning, and a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. One comparable has a fireplace. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $16,092 to $18,778 or from $12.04 to $13.04 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested that the subject's assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The appellants contend assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellants did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted twelve suggested comparables for the Board's consideration, which are all considerably older in age ranging from 26 to 63 years old when compared to the 10-year old subject dwelling. Eleven of the comparables are also smaller in dwelling size than the subject dwelling. When compared to the subject, the Board gives less weight to the appellants' comparables #2 through #5, #7 and #8 due to their considerably smaller dwelling sizes and/or lack of a garage.

The Board finds the most similar evidence of assessment equity to be the appellants' comparables #1 and #6 as well as the board of review comparables. These six comparables, except for the dwellings older ages, are most similar to the subject in location, design, exterior construction, dwelling size, foundation, and other features. These six comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $13,552 to $18,778 or from $9.82 to $13.04 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $17,287 or $11.16 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the most similar comparables contained in this record. After considering adjustments to the comparables for differences, such as the dwellings older ages and/or smaller dwelling sizes, when compared to the subject, the Board finds the appellants did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
