Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 116-year-old, six-unit residential condominium. The property has a 7,726 square foot site located in Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant's appeal is based on overvaluation. In support of this argument the appellant submitted evidence disclosing two units in the subject building recently sold for a total purchase price of $512,000. The appellant deducted $51,200 for personal property resulting in an adjusted purchased price of $460,000. This amount was divided by the total percentage of the recently sold units of 33.00%, resulting in a full market value for the subject as a whole of $1,396,364. The appellant multiplied the market value by a suggested 8.23% level of assessment resulting in a requested assessment of $14,922.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $136,434. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $1,364,340, land included, when using the 2018 level of assessments for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance. The board analyzed the same two sales as the appellant; however, the board did not deduct personal property. The resulting market value of the subject was $1,551,515, or an assessment of $155,152 using the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessment of 10%. Based on this analysis, the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the analysis submitted by the board of review. More weight was given to this analysis since the board of review did not reduce the sale prices to account for personal property, as no evidence was submitted regarding personal property. In addition, the board of review's analysis used the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance level of assessment of 10%. The board of review's analysis resulted in a total assessment of $155,152. The subject's current assessment is below this amount. As such, the Board finds the appellant did not meet the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject is overvalued and an assessment reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
