

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Tracy Draksler Brown
DOCKET NO.: 18-28891.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-18-305-037-1004

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Tracy Draksler Brown, the appellant(s), by attorney Noah J. Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $3,946
IMPR.: $32,540
TOTAL: $36,486

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of one residential unit in a condominium building. The dwelling is four years old and has a 32.52% ownership in the condominium. The property has a 3,125 square foot site located in Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on five suggested equity comparables. The comparable properties are class 2-11 apartment buildings.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $36,486 and an improvement assessment of $32,540. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium sales analysis based on two sales in the subject condominium. The board also submitted assessment data and percentages of ownership for the subject and two units in the subject building.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The suggested comparables are class 2-11 apartments while the subject is a class 2-99 condominium. The Board finds the appellant's suggested equity comparables to be dissimilar to the subject. As such, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that the subject is over assessed as the appellant did not submit comparables similar to the subject. In addition, the Board notes the two equity comparables submitted by the board of review support the subject's assessment. Based on this record the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
