The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are 4357 N. Lincoln Condo Assn, the appellant(s), by attorney Ciarra Schmidt, of Schmidt Salzman & Moran, Ltd. in Chicago; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

DOCKET NO	PARCEL NUMBER	LAND	IMPRVMT	TOTAL
18-29198.001-R-1	14-18-305-041-1002	4,221	46,755	$50,976

18-29198.003-R-1	14-18-305-041-1004	4,878	54,033	$58,911

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of residential condominium units located in a four-year-old, four-unit residential building. The property has a 3,125 square foot site and is located in Lake View Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on the sale of subject units with PINs ending in -1003 and -1004 in 2017 and 2018 for $575,000 and $610,000, respectively.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $50,976, $52,479, and $58,911 for units with PINs ending in -1002,

-1003, and -1004, respectively. The subject's assessment reflects market values of $509,760, $524,790, and $589,110, respectively, when applying the 2018 level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted a condominium analysis estimating the subject's market value based on sale of units with PINs ending in -1003 and -1004, for a price of $575,000 and $610,000, respectively. Based on the percentage of ownership of the units that sold, the board of review found the full value of the entire building.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of market value for units with PINs ending in -1003 and -1004 to be the respective sales in 2017 and 2018 for prices above the best comparable sales in this record. The Board also finds the best evidence of market value for unit with PIN ending in -1002 to be the sale of units -1003 and -1004. These comparables sold for prices ranging from $575,000 to $610,000 per unit. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $509,760 which is below the range established by the best comparable sales in this record. Based on this evidence the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
