Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of 13 condominium units within a 95-year-old, multi-story, masonry, 13-unit condominium building. The property is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant included sales information on three units within the subject's building that sold from 2016 to 2018. These units sold for a total of $616,000. The appellant then reduced this value by 5% for personal property to arrive at an adjusted value of $585,200. This value was divided by the percentage of interest of the units sold of 23% to arrive at a value for the whole building of $2,544,348. The appellant also submitted a 2017 assessment ratio grid and requests this ratio be applied to the reduced assessment.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the subject's assessment of $242,002. The subject's assessment reflects a market value for all the appealed units of $2,420,020 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted the sales of three units located within the subject building that sold from 2016 to 2018 for a total value of $615,900. The board of review then applies the percentage of ownership of the units sold of 23% to arrive at a value for the building of $2,677,826. These sales were also included in the appellant's evidence, but there was a $100 difference for one sale.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the sales submitted by the appellant as the appellant included documentation to support the sale prices. These units sold for a total of $616,000. However, the Board gives no weight to the adjustment as there is no evidence of this in the record to support this. Applying the percentage of ownership of the unit sold of 23% arrives at a value for the building of $2,678,260 which is above the current assessment. The Board give no weight to the appellant's ratio document as it is an incorrect year and unsupported. In applying the level of assessment for class 2 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance of 10%, the Board finds the appellant failed to show by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued, and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
