

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Andrea Granias
DOCKET NO.: 18-33585.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 14-16-305-029-1001

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Andrea Granias, the appellant(s), by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $6,466
IMPR.: $33,433
TOTAL: $39,899

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit within a 99-year-old, multi-story, masonry, three-unit condominium building. The property is located in Chicago, Lake View Township, Cook County and is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant included sales information on one unit within the subject's building that sold in 2017 for a total of $420,000. The appellant deducted 10% from this value for personal property to arrive at an adjusted value of $378,000. This value was divided by the percentage of ownership of the unit sold of 33.33% to arrive at a value for the building of $1,134,113. This value was then multiplied by the percentage of ownership of the unit under appeal of 33.33% to arrive at its value of $378,000.

The board of review submitted a condominium analysis results for 2018 document. The subject's assessment is $39,899. The subject's assessment reflects a market value for all the appealed units of $398,990 when using the level of assessment for class 2 property of 10% under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted the sale of one unit located within the subject building from 2017 for a total value of $420,000. The board of review applied a 5% adjustment factor for an adjusted sale price of $399,000. This value was divided by this unit's percentage of ownerships of units sold of 33.33% to arrive at a value for the building of $1,197,119. The appellant also submitted this sale into evidence.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(c).

The Board finds the best evidence of market value to be the sales submitted by both parties for a total of $420,000. The Board gives no weight to the appellant's and board of review's adjustments as there is no evidence to support this. Dividing the total sale price by the percentage of ownership of the units sold of 33.33% arrives at a value for the building of $1,260,126. Multiplying the subject's percentage of ownership of 33.33% reflects a value for the subject of $420,000. The subject's current assessment reflects a market value of $398,990 which is below the value as established by the sales. Therefore, the Board finds the appellant failed to show by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued, and a reduction is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
