

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: George & Eva Angelopoulos
DOCKET NO.: 18-33674.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 12-11-306-030-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are George & Eva Angelopoulos, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,455
IMPR.: $20,748
TOTAL: $25,203

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellants timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,426 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 50 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and a 2-car garage. The property has a 5,400 square foot site located in Norridge, Leyden Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellants contend assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellants submitted information on five equity comparables that are located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of frame or masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,144 to 1,360 square feet of living area. The comparables range in age from 50 to 60 years old. Four comparables have basements with one having finished area and one comparable has a concrete slab foundation. The appellant reported a “2” for each comparable in the air conditioning section of the grid analysis. The Board has determined this means “No” for air conditioning based upon the description of the subject property provided by the board of review. One comparable has one fireplace. Each comparable has a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $10,427 to $18,550 or from $8.08 to $13.64 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the appellants requested that the improvement assessment be reduced to $17,601 or $12.34 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $25,203. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $20,748 or $14.55 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located in the same neighborhood code as the subject. The comparables are improved with one-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging from 1,360 or 1,399 square feet of living area. The comparables are either 50 or 51 years old. The comparables have full basements with two having finished area. Each comparable has central air conditioning and a 1.5-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $21,624 to $22,545 or from $15.75 to $16.58 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence, the board of review requested the assessment be confirmed.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayers contend assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellants did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted nine suggested comparables for the Board's consideration. The Board gave less weight to the appellants' comparables #1 and #3 through #5 and the board of review's comparables #1 and #4 due to their finished basements, lack of a basement and/or smaller dwelling sizes when compared to the subject.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellants' comparable #2 and the board of review's comparables #2 and #3 as they are similar to the subject property in location, design, exterior construction, age, dwelling size, basement and features. These comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $18,550 to $22,512 or from $13.64 to $16.49 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $20,748 or $14.55 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellants did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

The constitutional provision for uniformity of taxation and valuation does not require mathematical equality. A practical uniformity, rather than an absolute one, is the test. Apex Motor Fuel Co. v. Barrett, 20 Ill.2d 395 (1960). Although the comparables presented by the parties disclosed that the properties located in the same area are not assessed at identical levels, all that the constitution requires is a practical uniformity, which appears to exist on the basis of the evidence.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
