

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Samuel Lorenzo
DOCKET NO.: 18-35855.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 31-36-313-004-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Samuel Lorenzo, the appellant, by attorney Amy C. Floyd, Attorney at Law in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,250
IMPR.: $2,864
TOTAL: $5,114

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story, single-family dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 974 square feet of living area. The dwelling was 65 years old as of the relevant tax year. Features of the home include a slab foundation, one full bathroom, and a one-car garage. The property has a 7,500 square foot site and is located in Forest Park, Rich Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-02 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $5,114. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $2,864 or $2.94 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables and data from a September 2017 sale of one of the comparables.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the board of review's comparables one, two, three, and four. Like the subject property, these comparables have single-family residences with frame and masonry construction, slab foundations, and one full bathroom. The dwellings on these comparables are the same age as the dwelling on the subject. The sizes of their living areas are similar to the size of the subject's living area. They are all located on the same block as the subject. Although there are also some notable similarities between the subject and the appellant's comparables, those comparables are more distant from the subject, so the Board has given them less weight.

The board of review's comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $3.27 to $4.13 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $2.94 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
