

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: James Nutter
DOCKET NO.: 18-35866.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 31-36-105-014-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are James Nutter, the appellant, by attorney Amy C. Floyd, Attorney at Law in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds A Reduction in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $2,157
IMPR.: $1,247
TOTAL: $3,404

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a one-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 974 square feet of living area. The dwelling was 66 years old as of the relevant tax year. Features of the home include a slab foundation and one full bathroom. The property has a 7,190 square foot site and is located in Park Forest, Rich Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-02 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal, which pertained to a property in Niles Township rather than the subject property. The documentation submitted by the board of review also pertained to the Niles Township property. The comparables submitted by the Board are all in Niles Township and are not similar to the subject, so the Board will not give them any weight.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer asserts assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did meet this burden of proof, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables one, two, three, and four. Like the subject property, each of these comparables has a one-story, single-family residence with a slab foundation and one full bathroom. The dwellings on these comparables are about the same age as the dwelling on the subject. The sizes of their living areas are similar to the size of the subject's living area. These comparables are in the same neighborhood as the subject.

These comparables had improvement assessments that ranged from $1.11 to $1.73 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $3.42 per square foot of living area is significantly higher than the range established by the best comparables in this record. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant did demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed, and a reduction in the subject's assessment is justified. The average improvement assessment for the appellant's comparables is $1.28 per square foot. Using this figure results in an improvement assessment for the subject property of $1,247. Adding that amount to the land assessment of $2,157 produces a total correct assessed valuation of $3,404.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
