

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Edward Daly
DOCKET NO.: 18-36858.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 22-20-407-034-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Edward Daly, the appellant, by attorney Mary Kate Gorman, Attorney at Law in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $759
IMPR.: $27,977
TOTAL: $28,736

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a two-story, single-family dwelling of masonry construction with 2,177 square feet of living area. The building was four years old. Features include a full, unfinished basement, a two-car garage, and central air conditioning. The property has a 1,380 square foot site and is located in Lemont, Lemont Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-95 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends overvaluation as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information about three suggested comparable sales.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $28,736. The subject's assessment reflects a market value of $287,360, land included, when using the Cook County Real Estate Classification Ordinance level of assessment for class 2 property of 10%.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four comparable sales.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant contends the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. When market value is the basis of the appeal the value of the property must be proved by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales, or construction costs. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds that the best evidence of market value is the board of review's comparables one, two, and four. Like the subject property, these comparables have two-story, single-family residences with four-year-old dwellings that have full, unfinished basements, two-car garages, central air conditioning, two full bathrooms, one half bath, three bedrooms, five rooms in total, and 1,380-square-foot lots. The living areas of the dwellings on these comparables are either the same size as the subject's or similar in size. These comparables are located on the same block as the subject property.

These comparable properties were sold between January 19, 2017, and July 17, 2018, for amounts ranging from $134.15 to $155.26 per square foot of living area, the price of the land included. The subject property's assessment reflects a market value of $287,360, land included, or $132.00 per square foot of living area, which is below the range established by the best comparables in the record. Accordingly, based on the evidence, the Board finds a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
