

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Rebecca Marshall
DOCKET NO.: 18-37473.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 16-02-205-031-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Rebecca Marshall, the appellant(s); and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $ 4,132
IMPR.: $ 21,690
TOTAL: $ 25,822

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board (the "Board") finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject consists of a two-story dwelling of frame and masonry construction with 1,809 square feet of living area. The dwelling is 125 years old. Features of the home include a full unfinished basement and a two-car garage. The property has a 2,952 square foot site, and is located in West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-05 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument, the appellant submitted information on four equity comparables. The appellant also submitted a letter arguing that the year-over-year increase of the subject's assessment by the Cook County Assessor was excessive when compared to other, allegedly similar neighborhoods. In Section II of the appeal form, the appellant stated that the subject is owner-occupied. Based on this evidence, the appellant requested a reduction in the subject's assessment to $21,411.

The board of review submitted its “Board of Review Notes on Appeal” disclosing that the total assessment for the subject is $25,822. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $21,690, or $11.99 per square foot of living area.

In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted four equity comparables.

In rebuttal, the appellant submitted a letter from the board of review, wherein the subject’s assessment for tax year 2019 was reduced to $21,969.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proven by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof, and that a reduction in the subject’s assessment is not warranted.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be all of the board of review’s equity comparables. These equity comparables had improvement assessments ranging from $13.44 to $14.00 per square foot of living area. The subject’s improvement assessment of $11.99 per square foot of living area falls below the range established by the best comparables in this record. Furthermore, the Board is not persuaded by the appellant’s argument that the subject’s year-over-year increase was excessive. Presumably, the appellant filed the instant appeal because she believed that the subject’s assessment was excessive. It is then the appellant’s burden to prove that the subject’s assessment is excessive by providing competent evidence. In this appeal, the Board finds that the appellant did not prove as such. Based on this record, the Board finds the appellant has not proven, with clear and convincing evidence, that the subject is inequitably assessed, and that a reduction in the subject’s assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
