

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Glenn Rawski
DOCKET NO.: 18-38193.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 13-21-104-012-0000

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Glenn Rawski, the appellant, by attorney George N. Reveliotis, of Reveliotis Law, P.C. in Park Ridge; and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,612
IMPR.: $21,933
TOTAL: $26,545

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a 1.5-story dwelling of masonry exterior construction with 1,626 square feet of living area. The dwelling is approximately 93 years old. Features of the home include an unfinished full basement and a 2-car garage. The property has a 3,690 square foot site and is located in Chicago, Jefferson Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-03 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant contends assessment inequity with respect to the improvement as the basis of the appeal. In support of this argument the appellant submitted information on seven equity comparables located within the same neighborhood code as the subject property and within 0.41 of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-03, 1-story or 1.5 to 1.9-story dwellings of frame, masonry, or stucco exterior construction ranging in size from 1,032 to 1,766 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 64 to 102 years old and have unfinished full basements. One comparable has central air conditioning, and six comparables have either a 1-car or a 2-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $9,007 to $21,877 or from $7.54 to $12.39 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the appellant requested that the subject's improvement assessment be reduced to $17,668 or $10.87 per square foot of living area.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $26,545. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $21,933 or $13.49 per square foot of living area. In support of its contention of the correct assessment the board of review submitted information on four equity comparables located within the same neighborhood code as the subject and within ¼ of a mile from the subject property. The comparables are improved with class 2-03, 1.5-story dwellings of masonry exterior construction ranging in size from 1,492 to 1,638 square feet of living area. The dwellings range in age from 95 to 99 years old and have full basements, two of which have finished area. One comparable has central air conditioning, and each comparable has either a 2-car or a 2.5-car garage. The comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $23,113 to $27,315 or from $14.11 to $17.44 per square foot of living area. Based on this evidence the board of review requested confirmation of the subject's assessment.

Conclusion of Law

The taxpayer contends assessment inequity as the basis of the appeal. When unequal treatment in the assessment process is the basis of the appeal, the inequity of the assessments must be proved by clear and convincing evidence. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.63(e). Proof of unequal treatment in the assessment process should consist of documentation of the assessments for the assessment year in question of not less than three comparable properties showing the similarity, proximity and lack of distinguishing characteristics of the assessment comparables to the subject property. 86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.65(b). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not warranted.

The parties submitted a total of eleven comparable properties for the Board's consideration. The Board has given less weight to the appellant's comparables #4, #6 and #7, as well as board of review comparables #2 and #3 due to differences from the subject in design, dwelling size, age, finished basement and/or lack of a garage.

The Board finds the best evidence of assessment equity to be the appellant's comparables #1 through #3 and #5 as well as the board of review comparables #1 and #4, which are overall most similar to the subject in design, dwelling size, age, and have an unfinished full basement. These six comparables have improvement assessments ranging from $16,893 to $27,315 or from $10.87 to $17.44 per square foot of living area. The subject's improvement assessment of $21,933 or $13.49 per square foot of living area falls within the range established by the best comparables in the record. After considering adjustments to the best comparables for differences from the subject, the Board finds the appellant did not demonstrate with clear and convincing evidence that the subject's improvement was inequitably assessed and a reduction in the subject's assessment is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
