

FINAL ADMINISTRATIVE DECISION
ILLINOIS PROPERTY TAX APPEAL BOARD

APPELLANT: Mark Segal
DOCKET NO.: 18-39753.001-R-1
PARCEL NO.: 17-08-220-043-1002

The parties of record before the Property Tax Appeal Board are Mark Segal, the appellant, by attorney Mary Kate Gorman, Attorney at Law in Chicago, and the Cook County Board of Review.

Based on the facts and exhibits presented in this matter, the Property Tax Appeal Board hereby finds No Change in the assessment of the property as established by the Cook County Board of Review is warranted. The correct assessed valuation of the property is:

LAND: $4,862
IMPR.: $91,748
TOTAL: $96,610

Subject only to the State multiplier as applicable.

Statement of Jurisdiction

The appellant timely filed the appeal from a decision of the Cook County Board of Review pursuant to section 16-160 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/16-160) challenging the assessment for the 2018 tax year. The Property Tax Appeal Board finds that it has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of the appeal.

Findings of Fact

The subject property consists of a condominium unit. The property is located in Chicago, West Chicago Township, Cook County. The subject is classified as a class 2-99 property under the Cook County Real Property Assessment Classification Ordinance.

The appellant asserts that the market value of the subject property is not accurately reflected in its assessed valuation. In support of this contention, the appellant submitted limited information about ten suggested comparable sales.

The board of review submitted its "Board of Review Notes on Appeal" disclosing the total assessment for the subject of $96,610. The subject property has an improvement assessment of $91,748. In support of its contention of the correct assessment, the board of review submitted its Condominium Analysis Results for 2019.

Conclusion of Law

The appellant asserts overvaluation as the basis of this appeal. When market value is the basis of the appeal, the taxpayer must prove the value of the property by a preponderance of the evidence. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.63(e); Winnebago County Bd. of Review v. Property Tax Appeal Bd., 313 Ill. App. 3d 1038, 1043 (2d Dist. 2000). Proof of market value may consist of an appraisal of the subject property, a recent sale, comparable sales or construction costs. 86 Ill. Admin. Code §1910.65(c). The Board finds the appellant did not meet this burden of proof and a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not warranted

Appellant submitted limited information about ten suggested equity comparables. These suggested comparables are condominium units in buildings that are located within ¼ mile of the subject property. The information provided included proximity to the subject, lot size, age of the improvements, date of sale, sale price, land assessment, improvement assessment, and total assessment.

Appellant failed to provide other information that would be important in determining the degree of similarity between the subject properties and these suggested comparables, including the square footage of their living areas, number of bathrooms, number of bedrooms, and total number of rooms. Based on the record before the Board, it is impossible to determine whether there are material differences between the subject unit and these comparables such that the sales prices of the comparables would not reflect the subject's market value. Under these circumstances, the appellant has failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the subject property was overvalued. Based on the evidence, the Board therefore finds that a reduction in the subject's assessment on this basis is not justified.

This is a final administrative decision of the Property Tax Appeal Board which is subject to review in the Circuit Court or Appellate Court under the provisions of the Administrative Review Law (735 ILCS 5/3-101 et seq.) and section 16-195 of the Property Tax Code. Pursuant to Section 1910.50(d) of the rules of the Property Tax Appeal Board (86 Ill.Admin.Code §1910.50(d)) the proceeding before the Property Tax Appeal Board is terminated when the decision is rendered. The Property Tax Appeal Board does not require any motion or request for reconsideration.
